Preparing Ambassadors to Teach about the Holocaust

The Project

Supported by the European Commission, PATH - Preparing Ambassadors to Teach about the Holocaust is an immersive year-long Holocaust education and transmission program to empower young Europeans to pass on the memory and lessons of the Second World War.

Through a combination of preparatory trainings, peer learning, study visits with renowned experts and unique encounters with survivors, Jewish and non-Jewish youth from Austria, Germany and Poland become ambassadors of memory and contribute to a strengthened democratic and inclusive Europe today.

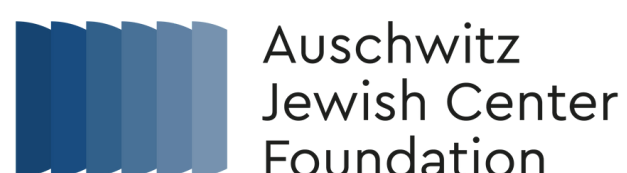

Become an Ambassador

Are you a Polish university student or young professional aged 17-25?

Are you interested in history, remembrance culture, social justice and responsibility, coalition-building, story-telling and democracy? Read more about the program and apply to join youth from Austria and Germany and become one of more than 50 program participants.

Preparing Ambassadors to Teach about the Holocaust

Study Trips and online learning

Participate in study trips to discover sites of importance during the Holocaust.

A preparatory seminar in Linz (May 17-21, 2024), an 8-day study visit to Poland (July 29 – August 4, 2024), as well as shorter visits including to Mauthausen, Obersalzberg and Jewish Vienna.

Additionally, participants gain access to webinars exploring the experience of women in the Holocaust, the Roma genocide, Holocaust denial and distortion and more.

Survivor Meetings & Trainings

80 years after the Holocaust the number of survivors still alive, and able to share their first-hand testimony is dwindling. Participants have the unique opportunity to meet, in small groups with survivors, and become part of preserving their memory. Become an ambassador of remembrance: Receive training on memorialization, and share survivors' stories on social media, following the exclusive meetings.
